

THE CHAPEL
Veterans Administration Hospital
Downey, Illinois

A 2,500-bed U. S. government institution for military veterans, located 35 miles north of Chicago. This chapel, designed to seat 350 persons, was dedicated on May 14, 1961 as a part of a complex of several new buildings. It is used many times each week by the several religious faiths represented among the hospital's patients.
